Alma Mater

Where Chilhowee's lofty mountains
Pierce the southern blue,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
Noble, grand, and true.

As thy hilltop crowned with cedars
Ever green appears,
So thy memory fresh shall linger
Through life's smiles and tears.

Lift the chorus, wake the echoes,
Make the welkin ring!
Hail the queen of all the highlands,
Loud her praises sing!

Chorus:
Orange, Garnet, float forever,
Ensign of our hill!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater.
Hail to Maryville!

Anderson Hall Tower

the tower bell,
class bell, chapel bell, dinner bell . . .
announcer of victory . . . reminder of the club meeting, or the approach of quiet study hours . . .

the tower bell,
symbol of campus life . . . symbol we love,
after the game we won . . . symbol we despise,
at 6:30 in the morning . . .

Anderson tower bell,
neither sleet, nor snow, nor sabotaged bell rope can stay this bold chime. It calls us to play, to studies, to life at M.C. Through smiles and tears,
the tower bell still rings.

JOSEPH J. COPELAND, B.A., B.D., D.D., LL.D
President of Maryville College

The inauguration of Dr. Joseph J. Copeland as Maryville College's seventh president was a stirring and meaningful event. Previous to this Dr. Copeland had been known to us as the 1959 February meetings speaker, since 1952 as a Director of Maryville College, and in his church in Knoxville as our near neighbor. Dr. Copeland is a dedicated Christian, a continuing scholar, and an able administrator; he is succeeding in fulfilling the ideals which he outlined in his Convocation address. We have already a great deal of respect for Dr. Copeland, and we look forward to a happy and prosperous future for Maryville College under his leadership. Those who attended the Open House at Morningside, Thanksgiving weekend, will remember the warmth and graciousness of the entire Copeland family. It is not unusual to see them at a basketball game or in the college dining hall, so completely have they entered into the campus life.

THE PRESIDENT

THE DEANS

FRANK D. McCLELLAND, B.A., M.S., LL.D.
Dean of the College

We are grateful to Dean Bushing, for sharing those words of wit and wisdom that brighten so many days; for encouraging us toward high scholastic ideals by his own example; for so faithfully carrying out double responsibilities in his service as English Instructor and Dean of Men.

ARTHUR S. BUSHING, B.A., M.A.
Dean of Men

Our gratitude to Dean McClelland, for holding the college standards high, and expecting us to live up to them; for being our representative at educational organizations and conferences, constantly improving the college standing; for knowing us and being interested in us and, with this interest, guiding us and the school academically and vocationally.

Our appreciation to Dean Massey, for being a friend, ready and able to understand, smilingly giving us credit where many times credit isn't due; for never failing to encourage us with a cheerful word and happy face; for so admirably adjusting all our special requests on the social calendar.

E. FRANCES MASSEY, B.A., M.S.

HOMECOMING

Sue Lemme, Senior English major from Normal, Illinois, presided over the Homecoming parade and game as a most charming queen. She was attended by Elsie Harris and Lois Lockett. Much luck, laughter, and work went into the floats which carried out the overall theme, "The New Regime." The Scotties were victorious over Southwestern of Memphis, and the high spirits of students and alumni combined with the decorative atmosphere of the Alumni Gym to make the dance a success. The tower bell called to a close one of the most memorable Homecoming days in the history of Maryville College.

INAUGURATION OF DR. COPELAND AS SEVENTH PRESIDENT

On October 27, 1961 at 6:30 P.M., faculty, administration, students, and special guests, invited from the ranks of those several hundred representatives of colleges who attended the Inauguration, gathered in Pearsons Hall for the Inaugural Dinner which began a memorable weekend.

It was a gracious evening. Dr. Hunter as the high spirited Master of Ceremonies, distinguished guests, fine food, and good music all contributed to this singleness of effect. Such an event does not often occur at Maryville, and perhaps for this reason it will be one of the most long remembered.

President Joseph J. Copeland, Dr. Joe C. Gamble, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Dr. Joseph E. McCabe, President of Coe College.

Presentation of the medallion and a moment of prayer.

On Saturday, October 28, 1961, Dr. Joseph J. Copeland became the seventh president of Maryville College. The occasion was momentous, and the Inaugural Ceremony held a great deal of meaning for all of us. Dr. Joseph E. McCabe, president of Coe College, presented an outstanding address, and music written especially for this occasion by Dr. Harter and Mr. Bloy was performed. Particularly impressive was the procession of representatives from learned societies and delegates from other schools and colleges. The Honorable Joe C. Gamble, chairman of the board of directors, presided over the ceremony and officially installed Dr. Copeland.

"Out of the Hat"

Thanksgiving evening, Out of the Hat, the 1961 Barnwarming production, was presented for students, visitors, and the Barnwarming Queen and her court. Pat Baker wrote the script, and Janet Kilgard and Sue Bloomer wrote the music. Lynn Waddington's direction and the holiday spirit of the audience helped to make Out of the Hat a light-hearted, fast-moving performance. Bruce Jenkins as technical director created a maximum amount of magical atmosphere with a minimum of properties and complicated stage effects. Fine voices, good acting, and a docile rabbit contributed heavily to the success of the show.

The Student Council is the representative government of the student body. The presidents of M.S.C. and W.S.G.A. and the presidents and four members of each class constitute the membership. Council's president and vice-president are chosen in a campus wide election.

The Student Council works through committees which give a complete coverage of campus life. The Social Committee, Town Night Committee, Pep Committee, Publicity Committee, and the U.S.N.S.A. Co-ordinating Committee illustrate this coverage.

The Projects Committee is important because it initiated the Trial Academic Honor System. This spring an experimental Leadership Development Program, which trains the officers of various organizations, was begun. The Outlook Program, a current events discussion, the Student Seminar Program, and the Coffee and Conversation Program are the work of the Projects Committee.

The Student-Faculty Senate, an initiating and mediating body, has a membership of eight students and eight faculty members, led jointly by the Student Body President and the President of the College.

The Maryville College Y.W.C.A. is an affiliate of the national organization. Its goal is to supplement the academic program through Christian worship, study, relaxation, and action.

To promote Christian attitudes toward worship and study, the Y cooperated with the Y.M.C.A. in presenting planned programs on Sunday afternoon or evening and in sponsoring Y-radio weekly over WGAP. Fun and entertainment were definitely two characteristics of Y's annual Barnwarming show, but its main purpose was to finance a campus-wide project. This year the money provided a $200 scholarship for a Korean student to attend Union Christian School, and purchased much-needed teaching materials for the Parish's work in Maryville. Y's community action included regular student assistance at Home Avenue, Sunnybrook, Asbury Acres, and several Girl Scout troops.

A branch of the national Y.M.C.A., the Maryville College chapter is one of the oldest in the South. In order to fulfill the Christian needs of the college men, the Y.M.C.A. has originated in the past the Artists Series and the intramural program. In conjunction with the campus Y.W.C.A. it presently sponsors the Y-store, Y-radio, Barnwarming, and Y-welcome for new students.

Its community projects, like those of the Y.W.C.A., include helping at the children's and old-folks' homes and in some Boy Scout troops. As part of its interracial policy the Y.M.C.A. supports the student exchanges between Maryville and Knoxville Colleges and assists regularly at Hale School.

The annual Y-hike, held each fall in the Smokies, provides a time of relaxation and fellowship for Y.M.C.A. members. At the end of each year both Y's retreat to the mountains for a weekend of training, planning, and fun for the newly elected officers.

NU GAMMA

Through informative personal letters during the summer, the Nu Gamma leaders acquaint incoming women students with the friendly spirit of Maryville. A cordial welcome upon arrival from an enthusiastic and helpful Nu Gamma leader does much to dispel freshman fears. Nu Gamma leaders, Y's representatives to the "new girls," for which the Greek letters stand, are chosen for their genuine interest in people, Christian attitude, leadership ability, and outstanding service to the school.

The Key Men, male counterparts of the Nu Gamma leaders, welcome the incoming men with great gusto. They are chosen on the same basis as the Nu Gamma girls, and these two outstanding groups work together throughout the year on Y welcome, the Homecoming float, and various other activities. These individuals make an effort to help each freshman or other new student find his place of service and enrichment in some phase of the campus program.

WOMEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Becky Kinnamon, President; Sue Stewart, Vice-President; Carol Cox, Secretary-Treasurer.

The dormitory women of Maryville have their voice in self government through the Women's Student Government Association. The W.S.G.A. Council is composed of two representatives from each class and is responsible for co-operation and order in the women's dormitories. The goal of W.S.G.A. is to make the years at Maryville a successful experience in group living in each dormitory here as well as a period of academic growth. This purpose is achieved by the close harmony of members of W.S.G.A. and the Student Council. The two organizations work together on the principles of government on campus and with the administration in maintaining the standards of the school.

All men who reside on campus are members of Men's Student Co-operative. The Co-operative Council, elected by the men, assumes the authority of governing matters concerning the interest of male dormitory students. Its purpose is the establishment and maintenance of orderly dormitory life and the promotion of good will and mutual concern within the group. It serves as an active voice for the men, reviews ideas and suggestions, and serves to encourage more cordial relationships between the men in the dormitories and the administration.

1962 CHILHOWEAN

The CHILHOWEAN is the project of the Junior class. A lot of people devoted a lot of time to the book, but now that it is finished no one seems to know exactly how it was done.

The CHILHOWEAN staff aims higher each year, attempting to make the book more comprehensive, more accurate, and a greater source of pleasure for the college community.

The CHILHOWEAN is primarily a visual record of one year in the life of Maryville College. It has a general appeal to people who do not know Maryville, and a particular sentimental appeal to those people who are the college.

The CHILHOWEAN is your book, the record of your activities, your spirit. You lived, and we recorded. Yes, your skirts were this short in 1962.

It is often difficult for town girls to feel that they are an integral part of campus life. Pi Gamma, an outgrowth of the "Y" program, remedies this, serving to give a sense of unity between town and campus girls. Pi Gamma encourages participation in campus activities among its members.

THETA EPSILON

Uniting for Rush Week ceremonies with her brother society, Alpha Sigma, Theta started the year with contagious hilarity in the form of the "Roaring Twenties." The fun and spirit creating the success then continued throughout the year as Theta girls met each week for fellowship and interesting and entertaining programs.

The high spot of the Fall was the Laurel Lake retreat which served to strengthen further the close ties of friendship among the girls. The closeness that exists among Thetas can be greatly attributed to their motto, "If God be for us who can be against us?" Their work with Sig included the Spring formal this year, and in the Fall the joint activity produced a float for the Homecoming parade—which, they proudly remind us, won the first prize.

The talents and fun which produced Rush Week brought Sig an outstanding pledge class. When the pledges turned to entertain their fellow Sigs in the Freshman Show, they proved a worthy addition to the society, displaying abilities in writing, singing, staging and—most certainly—humor. The Freshman Show was a joint project with Theta Epsilon, and the joining is a regular and much looked forward to event as the brother and sister societies meet together for business and social activities once a month. The Spring holds competition in Intramurals and Skit night, and continuing a project begun only last year, the Ralph W. Lloyd Award is presented to the most outstanding graduating Sig.

The purpose of Chi Beta is to bring its members into a closer fellowship and to advance their social and cultural development. Thus the appropriateness of the Greek words, "going forward together." The chapters, into which the society is divided, have each sponsored various services to the community as well as to the school and society. Social events of the year included a tea, a picnic, and parties, in addition to the Fall formal sponsored with their brother society, Kappa Phi. The annual events and the inter-society sports program, in which Chi Beta successfully retired the trophy in 1961, made this year an especially active one for Chi Beta.

Kappa Phi social society began the year by joining with Chi Beta to present an outstanding Rush Week program. Many freshmen became interested in the program after viewing the campus decorations and the show, "Kimono and Sneakers," and were welcomed as pledges. The men of Kappa Phi were active in the intramural sports program and participated with Chi Beta in a card section for football games. Speakers, sports, and skits highlighted the weekly meetings of the group. The members of the society worked hard on their Homecoming float, "Crowned With Success." Kappa Phi provides an opportunity for its members to join in discussion and recreation with each other and to form lasting friendships. Kappa Phi joined Chi Beta in sponsoring the annual Christmas dance and presented a portion of the Skit Night program.

Vesper Hymn . . . Lord's Prayer . . . Benediction

VESPER CHOIR

"O come, let us sing . . .," and sing we did, many great melodies. But we have many memories besides the melodies. The candlelight initiation recalls the more solemn moments; the Bumblebee Song, more flippant ones; and the flu shots, more painful ones. "Expand; relax the throat . . ." The hours in rehearsal recall hard work, but work we loved. And, of course, the foremost and favorite memory is of "Mr. America," our director.

The Choir leads singing in daily Chapel, February Meetings, Holy Week and Easter Sunrise services, and presents various concerts throughout the year. Special music this year included Pachelbel's Magnificat in C, Fauré's Requiem, and Bach's Motet VI.

The Choir toured this year in the North, appearing in Chicago, Gary, Detroit, Cincinnati, Louisville, and other cities.

For our regular work, the Sunday Vespers, we memorize two anthems each week. Many favorites from earlier years and many new pieces made up this year's repertoire. Among these, we enjoyed singing pieces composed by our own director, Dr. Harry H. Harter.

"Expand . . . Keep the breath moving."

MESSIAH

Last fall we (College Choir, Glee Clubs, several students, faculty and townspeople) became accustomed to the habit of Monday-evening Messiah rehearsals. Many weeks and rehearsals later, December 10, 1961, we sang in the 29th annual presentation of Handel's Messiah. With Louise Wyman, harpsichordist; Roger Wagner, pianist; James Bloy, organist; College Community Orchestra (rehearsed by John Roberts) and 18 soloists, we were directed by Dr. Harry H. Harter. After the oratorio, the audience joined us in singing Christmas carols.

But this year Messiah did not end with the traditional carol-singing. The next evening we rehearsed, and Tuesday evening we sang in the Knoxville Civic Auditorium, with the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra, Dr. Van Vactor directing.

Did the experience end then? We think not. The music and message still sing in many hearts.

The Men's Glee Club participated both singly and with the Women's Choir in many activities. The two groups presented the fall serenade, "Calendar Daze" and the memorable operetta in the spring. Both performances were enjoyable. The two groups also joined in the sponsorship of a comic dance early in the spring. Picnics and parties were included in the program of these choruses, Christmas Vespers and the two shows proved that the major concern of these organizations was singing.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

WOMEN'S CHOIR

The Women's Choir, under the direction of Mr. Dan Kinsinger, provided an opportunity for women who like to sing to do so. Although the girls worked hard, they enjoyed their participation. Alone or with the Men's Glee Club, the girls sang many types of sacred and secular music.

Occasionally replacing the Vesper Choir and joining in the Messiah chorus were two contributions made to the college program by the Women's Choir and the Men's Glee Club.

ORCHESTRA

Under the direction of Mr. John Roberts, the Maryville College-Community Orchestra has come up in the world of music. The orchestra serves to bring the townspeople closer to the college, as many members of this organization are not otherwise related to the school. This year's concerts were outstanding, for the orchestra's repertoire was both varied and interesting. The orchestra also accompanied the annual production of the Messiah and contributed in other ways to the cultural life of the college.

Tau Kappa Chi is an honorary organization for students who are studying applied music or are members of musical organizations. Its purpose is to promote student and community interest in music. Its aims are to raise the general academic standing of those enrolled in music; to provide a goal for students interested in music; to promote thoroughly trained musicianship; and to further the understanding of all types of music. A general average of "B" for two successive semesters and nomination by the music faculty for excellence in musical performance are required for membership.

BAND

The Maryville Highlanders were at their best this year when they presented "New Regimes," their half time show for the Homecoming game. The Highlanders, under the direction of Mr. John Roberts, who arranges much of their music, have become of late a more important part of campus life. The number of members has not increased significantly, but the prestige of the group has. They have played for more events away from the college than ever before. In most of their performances the Highlanders are joined by the Majorettes who are skilled and attractive entertainers. Their special talent this season was a routine with flaming batons which was very effective on a darkened football field. As the weather became less congenial or "marchable" the Highlander band with a few changes in membership moved inside to become the Concert Band which performed twice during the remainder of the year. One of these concerts was presented in the F.A.C. amphitheatre. Their repertoire included both classical and popular music.

Ron Noble, Drum Major, and Mr. John Roberts, Band Director.

Taking an important part in the Homecoming parade, the marching band follows its Sponsor, Miss Sue Stewart.

DRAMA

In addition to its curricular importance the Maryville College Drama department makes a genuine artistic contribution to the cultural climate of the campus. Many students not enrolled in drama courses found an outlet for their enthusiasm and energy when they participated in the casts and crews of the major and workshop productions. The season opened with a memorable presentation of Joseph Kesserling's comedy, Arsenic and Old Lace. A delightful Chinese fairy tale, The Land of the Dragon, followed; a special matinee performance was heartily enjoyed by the children (and adults) of the community. An outstanding performance of Noah by Andre Obey was the first project of the spring semester. George Bernard Shaw's Candida is the projected commencement play.

These presentations were the product of student ambition, talent, and hard work. Miss Kathleen Craven directed the plays, and the technical angle was headed by Mr. E. Parker Dupler. Maryville College's outstanding theatre facilities were put to good use throughout the 1961-1962 season. Especially noteworthy is the experimental production of Sartre's No Exit, an event which will be long remembered.

MARYVILLE COLLEGE PLAYHOUSE

The purpose of Playhouse is to provide for the student who is interested in theatre a familiarity with all aspects of theatre work. Under the supervision of Miss Kathleen Craven and Mr. E. Parker Dupler the students work cooperatively in an informal but professional atmosphere. The only requirement that must be met in order to become a member of Playhouse is that the student work in some capacity on a Playhouse production. This year's officers were: Henry Weeks, President; Kathy Scherer, Vice-President; Merelee Knott, Secretary; and Bill Conger, Treasurer. Playhouse members who have attained the rank of Player are eligible for membership in Theta Alpha Phi, the oldest national honorary dramatic society in the nation.

ART ACTIVITIES

Fine Arts Center Gallery

The Maryville College Art Department was fortunate this year to have several excellent gallery shows. Outstanding in the fall was the exhibit consisting of lithographs, silk-screens, woodcuts, and etchings from the Ohio State University graphics department. The student shows, at the close of each semester, were indicative of talent and hard work. A variety of media was used, and a trip through the gallery was enlightening and enjoyable. Through these public exhibits and several community art classes the college art department furthers friendly relations between the campus and the townspeople.

The art department, headed by Mr. Richard Beard, certainly is one of the most volatile in school. Both art students and non-majors gain a deeper appreciation of the history and application of art in its message, technique, and accomplishment throughout the ages. The department functions, not only in the instruction and training of art talent, but also in helping to fulfill the aesthetic needs of a liberal arts curriculum.

Studying in the gallery are P. Tepper, D. Glenz, E. Fuqua.

For the 86th year, M.C. altered the morning class schedule for the religious emphasis week of February Meetings. Rev. Dr. Edward Brubaker, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Englewood, New Jersey, led the services each morning and evening. All three of this year's leaders had participated in former years. Dr. Brubaker led the 1957 February Meetings. Dr. John Magill returned as songleader for the second time. Dr. Henry Barraclough returned as accompanist for the eleventh year. "Barrie" added spirit to the February Meeting hymns, and Dr. Magill's enthusiastic influence on our singing lasted for many morning chapels after. The sermons posed and discussed many questions and problems concerning our faith. Through February Meetings, we found many answers and deeper convictions.

ARTIST SERIES

William Warfield, baritone soloist and star of "Porgy and Bess," initiated the 1961-1962 Artist Series on October 26. His performance was also the first event of the Inauguration weekend. As the second feature of the season, on November 20, the Dublin Gate players presented a dramatization of Herman Melville's Moby Dick. In a special afternoon program they performed also The Taming of the Shrew by Shakespeare. On January 26, I Musici, the twelve member virtuoso Italian Chamber Orchestra, began the second semester quite pleasantly. Richard Cass, pianist, closed the season on March 1 with a marvelous rendition of his skill.

SCOTS FINISH SEASON WITH 6-2 RECORD

A colorful and exciting football year revived the spirit of former gridiron glory at Maryville College this year when the Scotties produced six wins against two losses. Coach Boydson Baird's talent-rich Highlanders marched to their most successful season in over a decade. With 16 win-hungry lettermen back and good depth in each position, the Scotties produced one of the area's top small college records.

Centre College of Danville, Ky., journeyed to Maryville for the first game of the season, and the Highlanders plastered them with a setback which raised fans' hopes for a good year on the Hill. The Scotties sent Georgetown College down in defeat with a sizzling victory. They suffered their first setback when they traveled to Emory and Henry. The Wasps edged out their visitors in a classic defensive battle. Coach Baird's hustling Scots went to Bridgewater, Va. the next week and returned home with another triumph. The Highlanders then journeyed to Jackson, Miss., where they triumphed over Millsaps College in a rain-scarred contest. Baird's highly touted club continued their road trip, and this time shel-lacked Frederick College of Virginia. The game of the year, traditionally the classic small college game of the area, closed out the season for the star-studded Highlanders. Maryville played host to their annual rival, Carson-Newman. The series was 18-18-1 going into this season's contest. The Eagles slipped off with a 29-20 victory after a hard fought, thrilling fray which was featured by heavy passing by the Scotties, a trademark all year, and good defense by the Eagles.

With the season completed, and success written into the annals, football fans throughout the area, and especially the Maryville College students, are pointing ahead to the rise of Maryville College in football. The season of 1961 will be remembered for many years as the revival of this sport on our campus.

BASKETBALL

Beginning the season with a single returning letterman and a host of inexperienced players, the Maryville College basketball team made a fair record. George Herron and Dale Sterner were co-captains of the team whose starting line-up also included Bert Randall, Mike Moyers, and Gerald Russell. Ed Krusman, Dave West, Charlie Finley, Bill Schellenger, Will Mitchell, Earl Jordan, Richard Holt, and Jim Henderson completed the roster. High scorers were Herron and Randall.

The Scots opened their playing season by participating in the Western Carolina Invitational Tournament where they made a good showing considering the class of the opposition. The opener on the Maryville floor, against Hiawasee College, was an exciting contest which the Scots won in an overtime. The team won their first King College game with the strength of West and Jordan, substitute guards. Another victory over King College to break their seven game winning streak and a thrilling defeat of Emory and Henry conclude the success slate thus far.

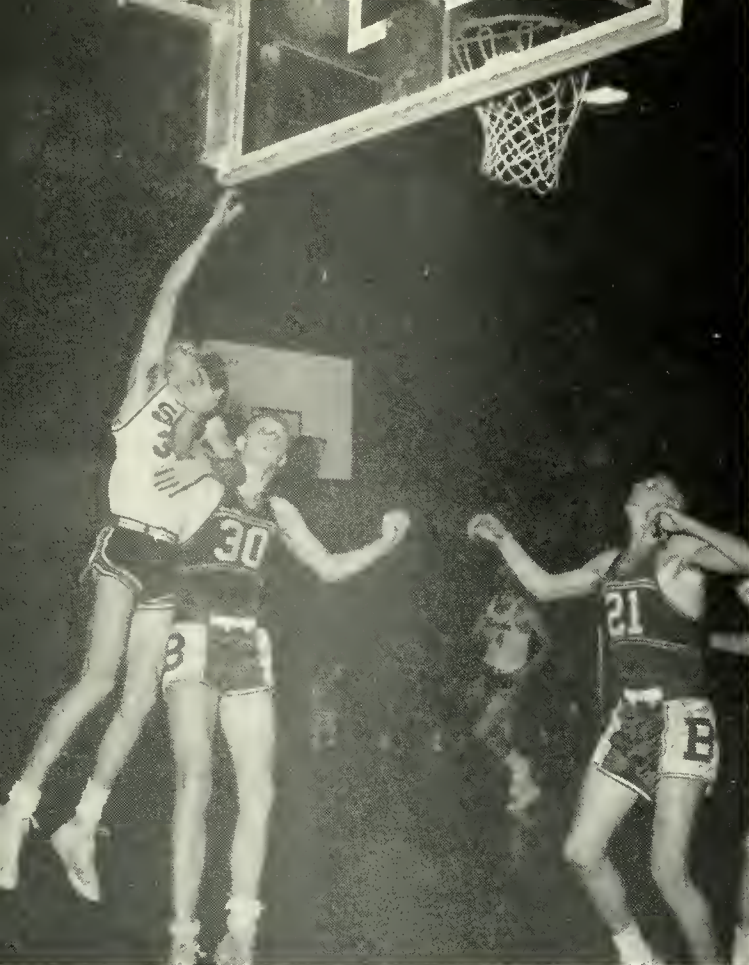

Individual lack of experience and speed led to many costly mistakes, but as the season progressed the boys played better ball and felt more at home on the court. Much credit goes to Coach Boydson Baird who guided the team and put to good use the talents present. With two games left this season and a large number of the present squad planning to return, we look forward to an improved record and more outstanding basketball games.

WRESTLING

B. McConahy gets two points for a reverse against Appalachian State.

The 1961-1962 wrestling season was a full one with eleven competitions scheduled. Half of the fourteen-man team were experienced wrestlers, and three grapplers were returning lettermen. The team worked long and hard under the direction of Coach John A. Davis. Although the Scot matmen began their season slowly, they and their fans were eager to register in the win column. Opponents this season included Appalachian State, University of Chattanooga, University of Alabama, University of Georgia, Auburn, and Emory University.

The team placed third in the Southeastern Conference Tournament of inter-collegiate wrestling. Jim Baxter, captain of the team, placed first; Don Elia, Joe Kucinski, and Pete Stafford placed second; Al Ries placed third, and Gene Dixon and Elden Ross took fourth place, all in their respective weight classes competing with the above mentioned opponents.

A late shift of position slowed down the Scot baseballers at the start of the 1962 season. Seven returning lettermen and a host of good looking newcomers promise a successful season. Hanover College of Indiana opened the season on the Maryville diamond; the two game series resulted in a split. Bowers, Petty, Phelps, Monroe, and Fairchild got the hits. Two scheduled contests with Alma College of Michigan were cancelled because of rain. Rain again prevented the game between Maryville and Tusculum College. A two game series with Lincoln Memorial University was divided between the teams, the Scots taking the home game 6-4 and losing 5-20 at the Lincoln ballpark. Sixteen battles remain, and as the Highlanders gain skill and confidence, the score sheet will hold more wins. Under the tutelage of Coach Boydson Baird are these men: John Badders, Keith Bailey, Tom Bowers, Bill Cochran, Gary Dutton, Art Fairchild, Bob Kidd, Chich Hallen, Dave Meneely, Ben Monroe, Roger Petty, Don Phelps, Dave Sandrock, Joe Scheidler, Dale Sterner, and Dave West.

Dale Sterner returns quickly to first on an attempted pick off.

BASEBALL

Returning lettermen from 61's season to star on this year's team are D. West, T. Bowers, D. Phelps, D. Sterner, and D. Meneely.

FIRST Row: B. Clark, L. Sterns, E. Paul. SECOND Row: G. Schember, T. Higgins, D. Cost.

Track is a popular Spring sport; there are so many things to watch. The team won the opener on the Bryant College field 67-64. The first home meet was less successful with Maryville losing to Kentucky's Cumberland College 30 1-6 — 100 5-6. Kirk Copeland, outstanding hurdles runner, won two events in the latter meet. Firsts were also awarded to broad-jumper Joe Malloy and javelin tosser Bill Owenby. John Livingston, Bert Randall, David Cost, and Roland McClanahan have made a good showing. It is difficult to predict the results of the rest of the season; we can predict that the fans will be present to cheer for Coach Tomlinson's men.

TRACK

TENNIS

With returning lettermen Bob Johnston, Jeff Grote, Todd Owers, and Roger Nooe forming the nucleus of the 1962 tennis team, the Scots started the season with victory. Gordon Stewart, Bob Paul, Fred Kolb, Gary Sypher, and Dave Marston are newcomers this year as is Coach Lauren Kardatske. A trip through Georgia opened the season. A 6-3 victory over Shorter College and a 5-4 win over Atlanta's Oglethorpe University, both well-earned, brought acclaim to the returning Highlanders. On the home courts the netmen took a 9-0 win from Cumberland College of Kentucky. Two losses, to Tennessee Wesleyan 8-1 and to Milligan College 5-4, were followed by another set of victories over East Tennessee State and Emory and Henry. With ten contests remaining in the season, the Scots promise to continue their outstanding record.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

A wicked serve!

Fun and excitement are key words for the men's intramural sports program. Under the supervision of Coach Davis and the intramural managers, enthusiastic athletes participate in tennis, "flag ball," basketball, softball, and other sports. For the second consecutive year Kappa Phi defeated Alpha Sigma in the annual "Stinkin' Shoe" football game with a score of 9-7. For the first season in three the Chinese Bandits lost the football championship to the Kappa Phi Knights. Those men who participated in any or all of the activities can testify to a good time and a hard work-out.

The Women's Athletic Association is one of the most inclusive and active campus organizations. Every woman who has participated in sports activities outside of physical education classes is a member. The association, under Miss Leslie's direction, is concerned with providing recreation for campus women. Teams for each of the seasonal and between-seasonal sports are sponsored by the two women's societies, but society membership is not required of W.A.A. members. There are games twice each week which, according to the particular sport, are supervised by members of the "M" Club. W.A.A. offers a wide variety of sports activities, ranging from ping pong to soccer, which appeal to women even remotely interested in sports.

The members of the Physical Education Club, majors in the field, met twice each month. Their program was varied and interesting: sometimes a speaker was featured, but often the program was pure recreation. With Mrs. Largen as advisor, the group assumed the responsibility of caring for much of the athletic equipment and helping to provide better facilities for the physical education classes at Maryville. They also sponsored the victory dance after the exciting Carson-Newman game.

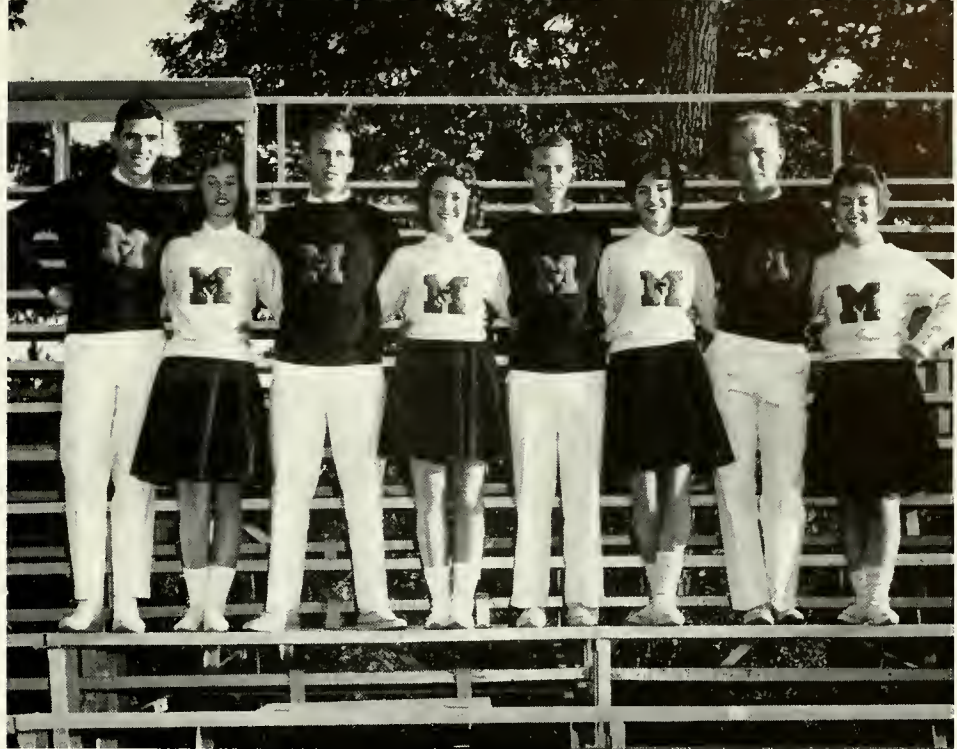

THE PHYSICAL EDUCATION CLUB

WOMEN'S "M" CLUB

The seventeen members of the women's "M" club have earned their standing by accumulating 400 points through participation in intramurals. This sports-centered group has as its aim the promotion of interest in women's sports and good sportsmanship. With Miss Leslie's guidance the girls enjoy two retreats each year. The program of their bi-monthly meetings includes fellowship, games, and an occasional trip.

FIRST Row: G. Coon, L. Lockett, J. Dearcopp, J. Price, C. Cox, N. Kinsman, Miss Leslie, M. Patterson. SECOND Row: T. Brusstar, F. Frost, P. Williams, A. Baker, J. Umberger, J. Reinke, M. Biggs.

W. Hampton, K. Burgess, D. Gritzmacher, M. Gilly, K. Copeland, S. Stewart, C. Steele, L. Brumley.

CHEERLEADERS

During the game they appear as flashes of orange and garnet in constant motion punctuated by shouts and claps. They are precise and organized. Their enthusiasm and vitality encourage the most timid student to join in the general din. They have the ability to make "Howie! Howie!" seem both important and logical. They are a rallying point for the enthusiasm of the student body; a source of vicarious pleasure. They enjoy what they do, and the students sense this and respond to their leadership.

The Maryville College Dance Band is one of the newer organizations on campus, but it has already made a fine impression. These excellent musicians, organized with the guidance of Mr. John Roberts, rehearse several hours each week. The dance band made its debut at the annual Homecoming dance after another victory by the Scots where the dancers enjoyed the new sound. The band has since then been busy rehearsing, arranging music, and performing for such social functions as class parties, victory dances, and the Christmas Holiday Ball. This group is doing a grand job filling a definite need on our campus.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES VERNON GAMBLE

Jim Gamble is a part of our memory now. For some, he will always live as a friend; for others, he will remain through his paintings and writings as a symbol of creativity; for all of us, he will be an example of one who lived fully, giving both of his talent and himself.

One of Jim's favorite poets, Edna St. Vincent Millay, in a short poem, "To a Young Poet," expresses something of the lasting influence of Jim Gamble:

*Time cannot break the bird's wing from the bird.
Bird and wing together
Go down, one feather.*

*No thing that ever flew,
Not the lark, not you,
Can die as others do.*

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Although much of their time was devoted to studies, most juniors found time to relax with their classmates at several class-sponsored parties. All who attended the Hallowe'en party in the Student Center had a spooky good time. A number of juniors were involved in their special class project, THE 1962 CHILHOWEAN. Conceiving and constructing their Homecoming float in Mr. Roberts' garage and decorating for a victory dance provided other opportunities for interested and enthusiastic juniors to work and have fun together.

Industrious juniors begin working on Independent Studies. M. Slater, C. Cox, F. Frost, W. Hampton, A. Kuykendall, J. Creadick, G. Jefferson.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

"Expecting Victory"

Hits the spot! Watching T. Brusstar dive are J. Deercopp, P. Delorues, S. Blair, B. Hutchinson, C. McNabb, and K. Ford.

The class of 1964 is a spirited group. In the classroom, at the Grill, in athletics, or in Student Council, their contributions have been valuable. One of their first tasks was to decorate the goal-posts for the opening football game and send the Freshmen scrambling for their shoes at halftime. The Sophomores worked hard on their prizewinning Homecoming float and participated in several parties. During that longed-for break between semesters the Sophomore class sponsored an Alfred Hitchcock film of campus-wide interest.

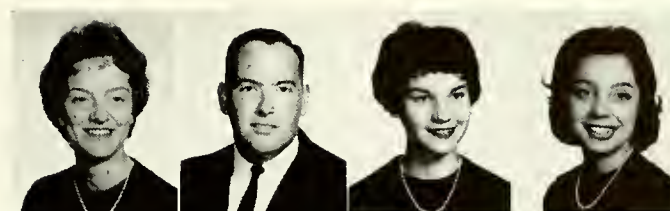

Happy Memories of fun at the Grill! Relaxing are L. Anthony, D. Sturgell, G. West, G. Eggers, C. Wood, A. Graham, A. Pateman, J. Stewart, and Mrs. Atkins.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

The largest single part of the Maryville College family is the Freshman class. We were fortunate to have such an eager and constructive group. Their active participation in the total college program left many Freshmen little free time, yet many individuals found time to help with the class Homecoming float and participate in other class activities. The float was a testimony to their ability to work well together. To the Freshmen goes the credit for the inauguration of the campus opinion poll.

"The New Regime Emerges"

Time out to relax at the Student Center!

The benches are covered with Freshmen on any sunny afternoon.

The Anderson tower bell has become a symbol of our academic aspirations, our spiritual seekings, and our social situation. The tower bell has evoked many emotions in us: exhilaration after a football victory; panic when we are in the shower; quiet anticipation before Vespers; hunger at 12:20. These feelings and the others, happier and sadder, are a valuable and memorable part of our years at Maryville College.

We recall, from our sophomore English course, Wordsworth's thoughts on the recollection of powerful feelings. To aid in this kind of recollection is the purpose of this book. The experiences recorded here are now a part of our past, yet the friends we made, the classes we attended, the floats we built will never be forgotten. Through the pictures and words of this 1962 CHILHOWEAN, the tower bell does indeed ring.
